

Today I learned that the massasauga rattlesnake is the only venomous snake in Ontario. It is endangered because of humans paving roads over their habitats.

One way you can protect the massasauga rattlesnake is to not pave new roads so the snakes don't have to cross over them and risk getting hit by cars.

Thank you Frontenac Arch Biosphere!